

Today's Bible reading

Mark 6.1-3

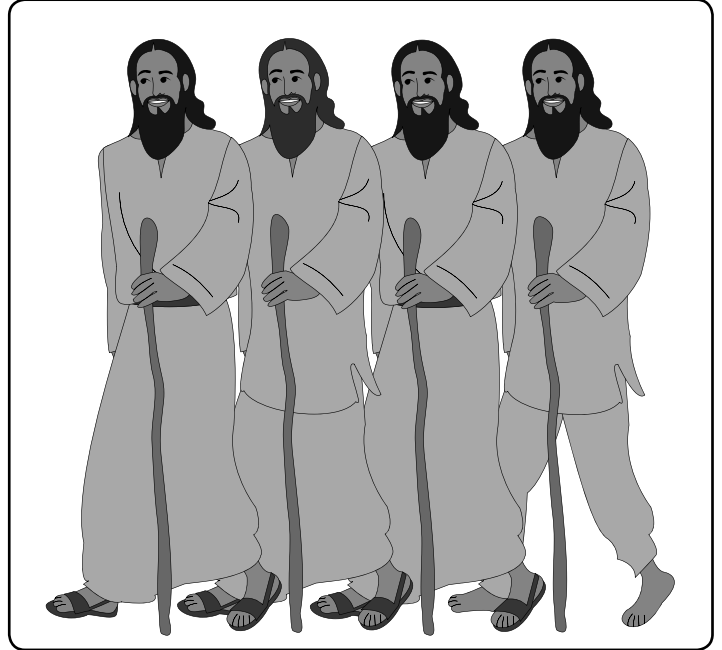

Jesus sends out his disciples in pairs to carry out the work he has been doing. But he warns them that they might not always be successful.

What do you do when you face a difficult job?

Activity 1

Which two of these disciples are identical?

Activity 2

Unjumble the words. Which of these things did Jesus tell his disciples to take with them, and which were they to leave behind?

fafst

derab

yonem

abg

landass

PRAYER

Thank you, Jesus, that you send us out to work for you.

Please help us when working for you is hard.

Please help us to help each other.

Amen.

Live in faith

Try to work with someone else to do something two by two. Can you be prayer partners so that you have someone to pray for and someone is praying for you?

Check it out

Watch Over the Hedge 