

John 6.35,41-51

People who know Jesus and his family are shocked and surprised when they hear him describe himself as the bread of life.

Jesus, the carpenter's son, surprises the people who know him when he explains that he is the Son of God.

Fill in the faces to show how the people who were listening to Jesus felt about what he was saying.

Can you unjumble the letters to make a phrase that appears twice in today's story?

modifiable feather

Find the route which takes Jesus from Joseph's carpentry workshop (the hammer) to his words about the 'bread of life'. The people listening had other thoughts about the type of person Jesus was.

